Although designed for VA employees, I believe information within this issue could be beneficial for information only.

Office of Diversity and Inclusion (ODI)

To all subscribers and friends:

The April 2013 issue of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs' (VA's) Diversity@Work newsletter is available for download and includes information on:

- VA's Hispanic Employment, Retention and Outreach Strategic Plan for FY 2013–2016
- CareerPower, a new MyCareer@VA online course
- VA demographics report
- High separation rates for employees with disabilities
- Special hiring authorities for Veterans
- Training opportunities
- Policy updates and alerts
- And much more...

The newsletter also includes information on the Annual Federal Inter-Agency Holocaust Remembrance Program, National Sexual Assault Awareness and Prevention Month, National Equal Pay Day, Pan American Day and Pan American Week, and other special emphasis programs and activities and observances.

Enjoy the newsletter, share it with staff and colleagues, and be sure to send us your feedback.

To view the newsletter online, you will need the free Acrobat Reader software. For more information, go to <http://www.adobe.com>, but always consult your IT manager before downloading new software.

A text-only version is also available.

Sincerely,

The Office of Diversity and Inclusion
U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs
